XOXO, Your Yearbook Staff

This is a group we all need to celebrate! They worked tirelessly on this yearbook especially trying to assure the seniors were well represented . Together they created, compromised and collaborated. But most importantly , they worked as a team and dedicated hours upon hours to this publication. As a small group, they were a dynamic group who were able to decision make, delegate and problem solve on their own. While full of high standards, they were also full of fun. I am proud of them all and forever grateful. They made C block a pleasure to look forward to and are already missed.
